An Appeal for the new sound system @ All Saints Church, Collingwood

Dear Friends,

Our original sound system was installed well before COVID and was augmented to enable our live streaming. As we have grown our congregation, in person and online, we have felt the strain on our audio/visual system. We have sought to enhance our speaker system and have included additional screens, new microphones and a sound and lighting board to capture our vibrant worship services so that everyone at home and in church can see and hear them!

Please consider a designated gift to our new sound system!

From Reverend Michael Peterson LENT MADNESS IS BACK

Once again this year, All Saints parishioners and friends have an opportunity to learn about some heroes of the Christian tradition and have some fun in the process by playing Lent Madness, starting next week on February 15.

Lent Madness follows the format of a pro sports bracket, and every day (except Sundays) during Lent, you get an opportunity to learn about two saints and then, along with other Anglicans, vote for the one that you like better (an entirely subjective process!). The saint with the most votes goes on to future rounds, until only one remains standing. Lent Madness is organized by Forward Movement, a publishing house of the US Episcopal Church. Last year, there were booklets containing descriptions of all the saints involved, that we distributed to the parish free of charge. Alas, those booklets are not available this year, but they are available as a free download here: SaintlyScorecard2024.pdf (lentmadness.org) If you don't have access to the internet but would like a print copy, please let the office know and we can arrange that for you. Father Michael will also run a commentary on his blog, www.madpadre.blogspot.com, including each day's matchup. Voting is done at www.lentmadness.org and I recommend bookmarking that site.

It costs nothing to play Lent Madness and it's a great way to get some inspiration and knowledge about the heroes of our faith.
