Music during Communion - At The Foot of the Cross

- 1. There's a burden we bear, containing our cares,
That we take as we walk thru' our life.
It is full of our pain, our hurt and our strain,
And the weight of grief and strife.

Chorus:

*So lay it all down at the cross, He said He would take all our dross,
He said we could leave all our pain and our grief
Right there at the foot of the cross.*

- 2. When you travel the road, still bearing that load,
All the weight of the world rests on you.
But the pattern you break, give up all the ache,
When the Lord you take unto you.

Chorus:

*So lay it all down at the cross, He said He would take all our dross,
He said we could leave all our pain and our grief
Right there at the foot of the cross.*

- 3. It is safe to believe the burden you leave
At the foot of the cross sets you free.
At the cross you just kneel, His love for to feel,
When His child you choose to be.

Chorus:

*So lay it all down at the cross, He said He would take all our dross,
He said we could leave all our pain and our grief
Right there at the foot of the cross.*

Psalm 22 Deus, Deus meus
Please see insert

At the conclusion of the psalm, the church is darkened and the clergy and people leave in silence.
