Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that our parish of All Saints', Collingwood, resides on the traditional lands of the Anishnaabeg (Ojibwe) and Haudenosaunee (Wendat) peoples, who cared for these lands for more than 15,000 years. We acknowledge that these lands are included in Treaty 18, the Lake Simcoe-Nottawasaga Treaty, as well as three other treaties signed between 1818 and 1819.

With repentance, we acknowledge the destructive impact of colonialism on indigenous peoples. With contrition, we pledge to give thanks for and listen to indigenous voices in our Anglican Church of Canada. With humility and hope, we undertake the work of reconciliation in our Church and in our country.

Music during Communion - For God So Loved the World

Rev. Michael Perry, tune Londonderry Air

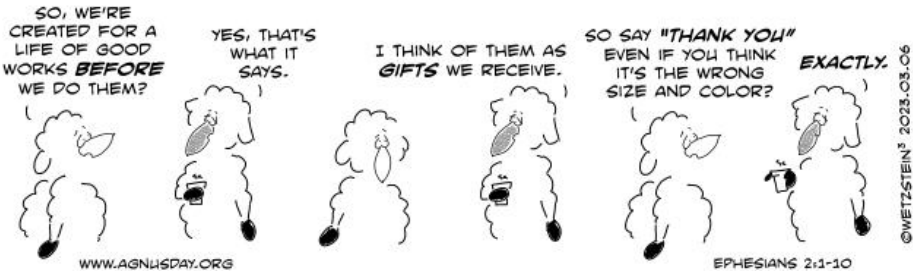

For God so loved the world he gave his only Son,
 who came to die that we might ever live;
 and on a cruel cross our full redemption won,
 that we might know the peace he longs to give:
 though he was rich, he came alone and poor for us;
 though he was Lord, he served as if a slave;
 though he was God, our human shape he bore for us;
 to earth he came in love, his own to seek and save.

Yes God so loved the world he gave his only Son,
 who came to die that we might ever live;
 and on a cruel cross our full redemption won,
 that we might know the peace he longs to give:
 though he was rich, he came alone and poor for us;
 though he was Lord, he served as if a slave;
 though he was God, our human shape he bore for us;
 to earth he came in love, his own to seek and save.
