Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that our parish of All Saints', Collingwood, resides on the traditional lands of the Anishnaabeg (Ojibwe) and Haudenosaunee (Wendat) peoples, who cared for these lands for more than 15,000 years. We acknowledge that these lands are included in Treaty 18, the Lake Simcoe-Nottawasaga Treaty, as well as three other treaties signed between 1818 and 1819.

With repentance, we acknowledge the destructive impact of colonialism on indigenous peoples. With contrition, we pledge to give thanks for and listen to indigenous voices in our Anglican Church of Canada. With humility and hope, we undertake the work of reconciliation in our Church and in our country.

Music during Communion - Unless the Grain Falls In the Ground

Tune CP 303 Rockingham

Unless the grain falls in the ground,
Unless the seed is buried deep,
No shoot can grow, no life can rise,
No harvest field is there to reap.

Unless the Son of Man shall die,
Unless his arms are opened wide.
Unless with Christ we die and rise,
No joy is ours which can abide.

Unless each day we follow him
And nail our sins upon his cross,
Unless his Spirit makes us new
Each seeming gain is but a loss.

Unless the grain falls in the ground,
Unless the seed is buried deep,
No shoot can grow, no life can rise,
No harvest field is there to reap
