The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading - Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Psalms 8

O Lord our governor,

how exalted is your name in all the world!

Out of the mouths of infants and children

 your majesty is praised above the heavens. Refrain

You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries,

 to quell the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,

 the moon and the stars you have set in their courses, Refrain

What is man that you should be mindful of him?

 the son of man that you should seek him out?

You have made him but little lower than the angels;

 you adorn him with glory and honour; Refrain

You give him mastery over the works of your hands;

 you put all things under his feet;

All sheep and oxen,

 even the wild beasts of the field, Refrain

The birds of the air, the fish of the sea,

 and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

O Lord our governor,

 how exalted is your name in all the world! Refrain

Second Reading - Romans 5:1-5

Acknowledgment of Indigenous Territory

We acknowledge that our parish of All Saints', Collingwood, resides on the traditional lands of the Anishnaabeg (Ojibwe), Haudenosaunee (Iroquois), and Wendat (Huron) peoples, who cared for these lands for more than 15,000 years. We acknowledge that these lands are included in Treaty 18, the Lake Simcoe-Nottawasaga Treaty, as well as three other treaties signed between 1818 and 1819.

With repentance, we acknowledge the destructive impact of colonialism on indigenous peoples. With contrition, we pledge to give thanks for and listen to indigenous voices in our Anglican Church of Canada. With humility and hope, we undertake the work of reconciliation in our Church and in our country.
