The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading - Exodus 17:1-7

Psalms 95

Come, let us sing to the Lord;

 let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving  and raise a loud shout to him with psalms. Refrain

For the Lord is a great God,

 and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth,

 and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it,

 and his hands have molded the dry land. Refrain

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee,

 and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

 Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice! Refrain

Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the wilderness,

 at Meribah, and on that day at Massah, when they tempted me.

They put me to the test,

 though they had seen my works. Refrain

Forty years long I detested that generation and said,

 "This people are wayward in their hearts; they do not know my ways."

So I swore in my wrath,

* “They shall not enter into my rest.” Refrain

Acknowledgment of Indigenous Territory

We acknowledge that our parish of All Saints', Collingwood, resides on the traditional lands of the Anishnaabeg (Ojibwe), Haudenosaunee (Iroquois), and Wendat (Huron) peoples, who cared for these lands for more than 15,000 years. We acknowledge that these lands are included in Treaty 18, the Lake Simcoe-Nottawasaga Treaty, as well as three other treaties signed between 1818 and 1819.

With repentance, we acknowledge the destructive impact of colonialism on indigenous peoples. With contrition, we pledge to give thanks for and listen to indigenous voices in our Anglican Church of Canada. With humility and hope, we undertake the work of reconciliation in our Church and in our country.
