Crack a Window, Not Your Wallet: 12 Easy ways to Save Energy and money this Summer in Canada –

Energy Saving Tip Number 4
Get Shady (With Your Windows)

Let's face it-sunshine is great, but not when it turns your home into a greenhouse.

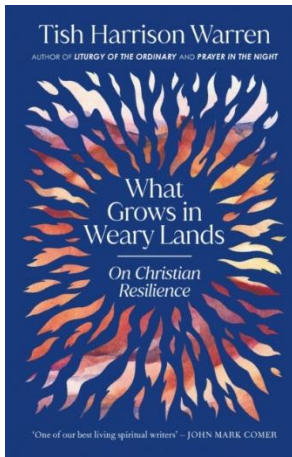

- Install blackout curtains, blinds, or reflective window films.
- Use exterior shading like awnings or plant leafy trees on sun-exposed sides.
- Keep curtains drawn during peak sunlight hours (around 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

Savings stat: Shading your windows can reduce indoor heat gain by up to 24%, reducing the load on your air conditioner.

From Reverend Michael

If you're looking for summer reading, Fr Michael recommends What Grows In Weary Lands: On Christian Resilience. The author, the Rev. Tish Harrison Warren, is an Anglican priest and was a columnist for the New York Times. Her book offers "a fresh vision for navigating burnout and weariness through ancient Christian practices - guiding us toward lives of resilience, renewal, and flourishing". In September this book will be our next choice for the Rector's Book Study.

Looking for a folk or acoustic guitarist for occasional performances of one or two contemporary Christian songs at a time and to accompany a soloist. Should be able to pick up chords easily, be comfortable playing in front of up to 50 people and be willing to practice. Performance fees negotiable.

Summer Hymn Sing & Ice Cream Social:
Sunday, August 16, 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Our friends at Prince of Peace invite us to enjoy an evening of favourite hymns, fellowship, and ice cream! Barry DeSilva will be at the keyboard as we sing from a curated collection of beloved hymns and some old Sunday School songs. Bring a friend and join us for a joyful evening of music, community, and summer fellowship!

- Freewill offerings received during the evening will support the Wasaga Beach Ministerial Food Bank. Those attending are also invited to bring new school supplies for the Backpack Mission, helping local children and families prepare for the new school year.

Book Donations Sought

If you have any surplus books in your house that you'd like to donate to the Prince of Peace book sale in September, pls bring them to All Saints over August. You can drop them off in the library. Any books leftover after the sale are donated to the prison library in Penetang, so this is a very good way to dispose of your unwanted books.
