

Offertory - Streets of Our Town

Words B. De Silva, Music Ralph McTell

Have you seen the street folk gath'ed by the Li'bry In the cold of winter – seeking clothes to put on?
In their eyes you see no pride, hands in pockets by their side Lost and so lonely and too scared to go home.

Refrain

So how can you feel so satisfied and feel so sure that the world is fine?

Let me take you by the hand and lead you through the streets of our town

I'll show you something to make you change your mind

Have you seen the young girl hanging round the drug store, Waiting for its op'ning for her meth-a-done?
Then she'll spend another day sitting at her fav'rite place Peddling her pictures that no-one wants to own. *Refrain

In the late night Timmies at a quarter past eleven Old men are sitting, each on their own.
Looking at the world over the rim of their paper cups;
Each cup last an hour when you've nowhere to call home.
*Refrain

Have you seen the old man who was once a hero Begging at the Thrift Store, his eyes full of tears?
In our winter city the snow shows little pity
For one more old man with a plea that no one hears. *Refrain

Music during Communion

A Place at the Table Words Shirley Erena Murray Music Lori True

- 1. For everyone born, a place at the table, for everyone born, clean water and bread, a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a star overhead.

Refrain

And God will delight when we are creators of justice and joy, yes, God will delight when we are creators of justice, justice and joy.

- 2. For woman and man, a place at the table, revising the roles, deciding the share, with wisdom and grace dividing the power, for woman and man, a system that's fair. *Refrain
- 3. For young and for old, a place at the table, a voice to be heard, a part in the song, the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled, for young and for old, the right to belong. *Refrain
- 4. For just and unjust, a place at the table, abuser, abused, with need to forgive, in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy, for just and unjust, a new way to live. *Refrain
- 5. For everyone born, a place at the table, to live without fear, and simply to be,
to work, to speak out, to witness and worship, for everyone born, the right to be free. *Refrain
