The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading - Exodus 16:2-15

Psalm 105:1-6, 37-45

Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name;

 make known his deeds among the peoples. Refrain

Sing to him, sing praises to him,

 and speak of all his marvellous works.

Glory in his holy name;

 let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Search for the Lord and his strength;

 continually seek his face. Refrain

Remember the marvels he has done,

 his wonders and the judgements of his mouth,

O offspring of Abraham his servant,

 O children of Jacob his chosen. Refrain

He led out his people with silver and gold;

 in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.

Egypt was glad of their going,

 because they were afraid of them.

He spread out a cloud for a covering  and a fire to give light in the night season. Refrain

They asked, and quails appeared,

 and he satisfied them with bread from heaven.

He opened the rock, and water flowed,

 so the river ran in the dry places.

For God remembered his holy word

 and Abraham his servant. Refrain

So he led forth his people with gladness,

 his chosen with shouts of joy.

He gave his people the lands of the nations,

 and they took the fruit of others' toil,

That they might keep his statutes

 and observe his laws. Hallelujah! Refrain

Second Reading - Philippians 1:21-30

Acknowledgment of Indigenous Territory

We acknowledge that our church resides on the traditional territory of the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe peoples.

As Christians we recognize the enduring presence of the peoples connected to this land. We are grateful that, despite the Church's conflicted history, we have the opportunity to gather on this territory, and share the responsibility to care and respect both the land and waters for future generations.
