From Reverend Michael

Online Blessing of the Animals, October 4th

October 4th is the Feast of St Francis, so at 1:30pm that day we will hold a regional Blessing service online via Zoom. It will be a chance for you to hold up your dog and cat to the camera (we all know that cats love Zoom meetings), and you can also show off your goldfish, hamsters, etc. Watch for a Zoom invite in the weeks to come.

The Solar Suitcase Challenge

Bring light and life to mothers and newborns in a rural Mozambique clinic. Please see this week's All Saints Alive for details.

Why Do We Do That in Church?

Anglican worship can be mysterious. On Sunday, November 1st, All Saints Day, as part of our Joyful Gratitude campaign, we will have an instructed eucharist service. In lieu of a sermon, Fr Michael will walk through the service and explain the meaning of its various parts as it happens.

If you have a question about our worship that you would like Michael to try and answer, write it out and leave it on the collection plate before November 1st. Your questions can be anonymous.

Mark Your Calendar: Service of Choral Evensong here at All Saints on Sunday, 1st November, at 4pm.

Night Prayer – Sunday September 27th and Wednesday, September 30th at 8pm on Zoom.

It is a short, peaceful service to close the day in prayer, calmness, and gratitude. Zoom link:
