The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading - Deuteronomy 34:1-12
Psalm 90: 1-6, 13-17

Lord, you have been our refuge

 from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born,

 from age to age you are God. *Refrain

You turn us back to the dust and say,

 "Go back, O child of earth."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past  and like a watch in the night. *Refrain

You sweep us away like a dream;

 we fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and flourishes;

 in the evening it is dried up and withered. *Refrain

Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry?

 be gracious to your servants.

Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;

 so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us  and the years in which we suffered adversity. *Refrain

Show your servants your works

 and your splendour to their children.

May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us;

 prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork. *Refrain

Acknowledgment of Indigenous Territory

We acknowledge that our church resides on the traditional territory of the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe peoples.

As Christians we recognize the enduring presence of the peoples connected to this land. We are grateful that, despite the Church's conflicted history, we have the opportunity to gather on this territory, and share the responsibility to care and respect both the land and waters for future generations.
