The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading - Exodus 20:1-4, 7-9, 12-20

Psalm 19

The heavens declare the glory of God,

 and the firmament shows his handiwork.

One day tells its tale to another,

 and one night imparts knowledge to another.

Although they have no words or language,

 and their voices are not heard,

Their sound has gone out into all lands,

 and their message to the ends of the world. Refrain

In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun;

 it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber; it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again;

 nothing is hidden from its burning heat. Refrain

The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul;

 the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart;

 the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes. Refrain

The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;

 the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold,  sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb. Refrain

By them also is your servant enlightened,

 and in keeping them there is great reward.

Who can tell how often he offends?

 cleanse me from my secret faults. Refrain

Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me;

 then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,

 O Lord, my strength and my redeemer. Refrain

Acknowledgment of Indigenous Territory

We acknowledge that our church resides on the traditional territory of the Wendat, the Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe peoples.

As Christians we recognize the enduring presence of the peoples connected to this land. We are grateful that, despite the Church's conflicted history, we have the opportunity to gather on this territory, and share the responsibility to care and respect both the land and waters for future generations.
